

Already Dead

The Ready Set

I wreck shit just for the hell of it
I'm pretty fucking cute so I couldn't get away with it
I swear to God, you ain't seen nothing yet
I'm really not as sweet as I seem on the internet
Goddamn, it's so good to see you
Looks way better with me underneath you
Cherry chapstick stuck on your cigarette
Guess you gave up on giving it up again

Quarter to two, high as the moon
And I will kiss you, bet you wish I missed you

Never gonna cry, I won't give you that
Never gonna die, I'm already dead
Can't get my tongue outta your mouth
Sure gave you something to talk about
You say a lotta things when you get too drunk
That you never really mean, can you please shut up
Can't get my taste outta your mouth
But we got nothing to talk about

You better take take take, better take what you can
Because you broke my heart and you don't understand
How bad it feels until you try it
But you thought that I was lying

Quarter to two, high as the moon
And I will kiss you, bet you wish I missed you

Never gonna cry, I won't give you that
Never gonna die, I'm already dead
Can't get my tongue outta your mouth
Sure gave you something to talk about
You say a lotta things when you get too drunk
That you never really mean, can you please shut up
Can't get my taste outta your mouth
But we got nothing to talk about

Quarter to two, high as the moon
And I will kiss you, bet you wish I missed you
Quarter to two, high as the moon
(Never gonna cry, I won't give you that
Never gonna die, I'm already dead)
And I will kiss you, bet you wish I missed you
(Can't get my tongue outta your mouth
Sure gave you something to talk about)
