

Cherryland

The Ready Set

She said, here, take this
It won't last long but you might feel weird in the morning
Make a wish, pick a song
I'll keep my foot on the gas
Read my lips, all of this
Could be gone in a moment
So gimme pins and needles
Gimme all that I can take

Suddenly I'm falling
Don't want it to change

She picks me up when I'm going under
Oh my god she's the seventh wonder
I can't remember where I am
She said "boy, you're in cherryland"
She's one in a million, forgot to tell her
On my tongue I taste french vanilla
I can't remember where I am
She said "boy, you're in cherryland"

Take my hand, pick me up
Can you tell that I like it?
Split in two, fall apart
Watch the symmetry break
Press your teeth on my lips
This is all that I wanted
I got pins and needles
You got frosting on your face

Suddenly I'm falling
Don't want it to change

She picks me up when I'm going under
Oh my god she's the seventh wonder
I can't remember where I am
She said "boy, you're in cherryland"
She's one in a million, forgot to tell her
On my tongue I taste french vanilla
I can't remember where I am
She said "boy, you're in cherryland"

(She said "boy, you're in cherryland")
Suddenly I'm falling
Don't want it to change

She picks me up when I'm going under
Oh my god she's the seventh wonder
I can't remember where I am
She said "boy, you're in cherryland"
She's one in a million, forgot to tell her
On my tongue I taste french vanilla
I can't remember where I am
She said "boy, you're in cherryland"
