The Ready Set

Said I'm good, yeah doing well
But here I am asking for help
I'm bad at that and you said so yourself
All the comfort I once felt
Suddenly is far away
And this state of emotion is the coldest
Been like this for days
And it's late but I'm hoping you'll be back
'Cause you left your

Echo
You've been a little distant
I hope you don't hate me
You let go
I know why you're resistant
'Cause when I'm around I pull you back down
You've been a little distant
Echo, just tell me how to fix it

I know the look of disgust, seeing myself through your eyes
I'm the person I was, I'm not a person you like
Make up another excuse, grow up and give it a try
Yeah it's just something to do to kill time then I see your face
This state of emotion is the coldest
Now you wish I'd change
I'm trying and I'll show it
So come back 'cause you left your

Echo
You've been a little distant
I hope you don't hate me
You let go
I know why you're resistant
'Cause when I'm around I pull you back down
You've been a little distant
Echo, just tell me how to fix it

Oooo
Just tell me how to fix it
Oooo

Echo
You've been a little distant
I hope you don't hate me
You let go
I know why you're resistant
'Cause when I'm around I pull you back down
You've been a little distant
Echo, just tell me how to fix it
Echo, just tell me how to fix it
