

Enamel

The Ready Set

Enamel [x2]

Ten shots of novocaine
Cut these teeth sharp as blades
Enamel starts to fade
Give me love oh I want that taste
I tried blood not a dam thing changed

Oh baby I'm not cut out for this
Its like I'm always trying to shift my shape
I shift away to save my face hiding from the day
And is it all really worth a kiss? of a girl with a deadly taste
e
But I shall wait and wait and wait
And oh how you let my heart astray

Ten shots of novocaine
Cut these teeth sharp as blades
Enamel starts to fade
Give me love oh I want that taste
I tried blood not a dam thing changed

Enamel [x4]

Oh is it all playing out like this
Its like I never really get my shot
And you take off me and my thoughts
All left alone wonder what you don't see
And is it all really worth a kiss? of a girl with a deadly taste
But I shall wait and wait and wait
And oh how you let my heart astray

Ten shots of novocaine
Cut these teeth sharp as blades
Enamel starts to fade
Give me love oh I want that taste
I tried blood not a dam thing changed
