

Notions

The Ready Set

(I've got the notion for emotion
And baby I set my sights on you
I've got the notion for emotion
Baby so let this song come true)

Hello what's your name girl
Do you feel alright
Said my name then you stopped me
Cause it don't matter tonight
We're acting kinda crazy
Feeling amazing
I've done the fast path down your one way eyes

Hey, can you be my queen tonight
Cause I got the feeling that your feeling me
Under these flashing lights

Hey, can I be your king tonight
I could dress you up in diamond jewelry
Cause straight up your royalty

Get up, get up
We don't gotta take it slow
Tell me lies, tell me lies
Like we'er never going home

You say the music makes you wanna fall in love
So let this song come true
This one goes out to me and you

I've got the notion for emotion
And baby I set my sights on you
I've got the notion for emotion
Baby so let this song come true

We both got intentions
But I'm never gonna lie about them
So maybe I should mention
That my world holds up
And when they say the musics over
(Simple and sober)
Doin 8 5 in a love struck zone

Hey, living in a dream tonight
Now I got the feeling we'er invincible
So maybe we can fly

Hey, can you be my queen tonight
I can dress you up down anything
You are just fine with me

Get up, Get up
We don't gotta take it slow
Tell me lies, tell me lies
Like we'er never going home

You say the music makes you wanna fall in love

So let this song come true
This one goes out to me and you

I've got the notion for emotion
And baby I set my sights on you
I've got the notion for emotion
Baby so let this song come true

We don't have the luxury to live slow
So can I sing you anything
That you know we'er so free
(But loving this moment)
But it's only love-love in this moment

You say the music makes you wanna fall in love
So let this song come true
(Let it come true)

Get up, get up
We don't gotta take it slow
Tell me lies, tell me lies
Like we'er never going home

You say the music makes you wanna fall in love
So let this song come true
This one goes out to me and you

I've got the notion for emotion
And baby I set my sights on you
I've got the notion for emotion
Baby so let this song come true

(I've got the notion for emotion
And baby I set my sights on you
I've got the notion for emotion
So baby let this song come true)
