

Real

The Ready Set

We coulda been good
I woulda like that
Did what I should
But you wouldn't give back
A picture is worth a million words
Edited our love but it still don't work
Cause its not real real real

I've been awake for days
But you didn't know
In my mind I race
Head hanging low
Feeling like a phase that you won't let go
I can't relate to you any more

We coulda been good
I woulda like that
Did what I should
But you wouldn't give back
A picture is worth a million words
Edited our love but it still don't work
Cause its not real real real
It's not real

It's all obsessed in love with your phone
It gets in your head being alone
I feel a little bit bad
But that's not on me
You can't be sad
When you're heart's a machine

We coulda been good
I woulda like that
Did what I should
But you wouldn't give back
A picture is worth a million words
Edited our love but it still don't work
Cause it's not real real real
It's not real
Cause it's not real real real
It's not real

Letting you go
Cause I know you wanna drown me out
But I'll pick up your calls if you wanna talk
Letting you go
When it hits its gonna drive me down
So I will wait for the fall
When it's over that's all

We coulda been good
I woulda like that
Did what I should
Edited our love but it still don't work

It's not real
It's not real
