I'm a major minority, I can tell the government lies Long as they don't compromise my infernal disquise Cold water is all around, is this what it feels like to Ain't no body to pull me out, it feels like I'm going down White magic hypocrisy Forced to follow the rules And there ain't no places to fit us in Cause it's been this way all along I do what I want Whenever I like Because it's my right I don't ever want to do what I told I'm getting old And this is how my life's been turning out I do what I want Whenever I like Because it's my right I don't ever want to do what I told I'm getting old And this is how my life's been turning out I do what I want Whenever I like Because it's my right I don't ever want to do what I told I'm getting old And this is how my life's been turning out I do what I want Whenever I like Because it's my right I don't ever want to do what I told I'm getting old And this is how my life's been turning out For... me...