

The Relapse Of Humanity

The Red Shore

There will be no relapse of humanity
I do not want to return
Fractured
And defeated
A new hope for this world
Manufactured thoughts of lies deceit control power
Greed war and immortality
The resulting collapse of civilization
The existence
Blinded by its own intentions to fail
I there will be no relapse of humanity
I do not want to return
Nothing consumes everything
The flame of fractured light
Is extinguished
I won t return
A solution is born to prevent the death of this planet
A morbid destructive
End in a failure to achieve greatness
Only when there is nothing
There is the freedom to do anything
There will be no relapse of humanity
I do not want to return
Nothing consumes everything
The flame of fractured light is extinguished
I won t return
Redemption breeds rebirth
I won t return
Redemption breeds rebirth
I won t return
Redemption breeds rebirth
Redemption
Redemption
Re-begin
Fear me
Re-begin
Fear me
Fear me
Fear me
Fear me
Fear me
