

Anxieties (Out Of Time)

The Regrettes

I can hear the sirens
When my vision's blurry
And my eyes won't stay dry
'Cause my thoughts will hurt me
Knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down

I can feel their anger
I can't run much longer
Feel the faults they rage out
Ones in the vaults they'll break out
To knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down
Do you feel it comin'? You won't see it comin'

All of these anxieties come over me, just let me breathe
Are we just forever runnin' out of time?
Missin' how it feels to really be alive
Knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down
Knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down

I can see the silence and it's comin towards me
But my body weighs down and my mind is burning
Knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down
Do you feel it comin'? You won't see it comin'

All of these anxieties come over me, just let me breathe
Are we just forever runnin' out of time?
Missin' how it feels to really be alive
Knock me down-down-up. back down
Knock me down, I won't back down
Knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down

What can I, what can I do?
Can somebody give me a damn clue?
Fear on my body like glue
Can't move, I can't move, I can't move
What can I, what can I say?
Tellin' myself that I'm okay
Colors come after the rain
Knock me down, I won't back down

All of these anxieties come over me, just let me breathe
Are we just forever runnin' out of time?
Missin' how it feels to really be alive
Knock me down-down-up, back down
Knock me down, I won't back down
