

Dead Wrong

The Regrettes

It's hard to breathe
Don't look at me
You're such a tease
When you start to leave
So stay, so stay, so stay
Don't walk away
You light it up
You fire it up
And you cool it down
So stay, so stay
So stay, stay, stay, stay, stay
So stay
You make my fingers cold
You stuffed up all in my nose
My ears, they ring oh so loud
I see you standing in the crowd

It's wake up time
Get out of my mind
We can't press rewind
'Cause it's wake up time

A docuseries, indie movies
Keeps us talking all night long
Future planning, you're demanding
Listenin' to the same old songs
Elvis Presley, you think I'm messy
I tell you, you are dead wrong

I wave goodbye
Can make me cry
But I can have some pie
And then just sell myself a lie
So stay, so stay, so stay
You cut it up
And you call my bluffs
You act so tough
And yeah, I think I've had enough
But I still want you to stay, just stay
Yeah, you better stay, stay, stay, stay, stay
Just stay
You make my back ache
But in the best way
My toes gets claustrophobic
You make me so fucking sick

It's wake up time
Get out of my mind
We can't press rewind

A docuseries, indie movies
Keeps us talking all night long
Future planning, you're demanding
I tell you, you are dead wrong

Yeah, you are dead wrong
You are dead wrong
Yeah, you are dead wrong
