The Reklaws

Couple kids in a run down van
Singing for tips and a tank of gas
With marqi dreams
But a dive bar paycheque

Playing hand me down guitars in the neon glow
Hometown wanna hear 'em on the radio
They know they'll get there
Even though they ain't there yet

We're all moving at godspeed
Just breathe, may seem
Like we might be lost tonight
But we're right where we're supposed to be

There's only so much hourglass sand
Good thing it's out of our hands
Every second every minute every echo of a heartbeat
It's all moving at godspeed

Godspeed

Newlyweds just trying to grow
Can't help but rush that road
Seems all their friends
Got there on the first try

They remind themselves to just let go
'Cause somewhere deep down they know
While they're up late
Praying for them pink lines

They're moving at godspeed
Just breathe, may seem
Like we might be lost tonight
But we're right where we're supposed to be

There's only so much hourglass sand
Good thing it's out of our hands
Every second every minute every echo of a heartbeat
It's all moving at godspeed

Ooh
Godspeed, hey

I Was Holding On To Grandpa's Hand
Just To Have Another Moment With Him
He said, "Don't be scared
'Cause where I'm going:

"I'll be moving at godspeed
Just breathe, may seem
Like we might be lost tonight
But I'm right where I'm supposed to be"

There's only so much hourglass sand
Good thing it's out of our hands

Every second every minute every echo of a heartbeat
It's all moving at godspeed

Ooh
Godspeed, hey
It's all moving at godspeed
