

Karma

The Reklaws

I had friend named Karma
Yea were the best of friends
Laughed and drank and hung out all the time

Till that day I caught her in her bed with my boyfriend
Yea you could say she really crossed the line

They moved in together and it lasted for a year
Till he fell for her sister and the two just dissapered

Yea that's just Karma
She'll weigh down on ya
Don't close your eyes too long
Cause she might come and haunt ya
Yea One day she's so lovely and the next she flips a switch
It's true they say that Karma she's a
Beautiful lie to your face
Knife in your back
A bitter taste
She'll burn up all your clothes and every bridge
A cloud that just won't go away
Like Bad news on a sunny day
It's true they say that Karma is a
Hey Hey Hey Hey

I kissed a girl named Karma
At a bar in Santa Fe
We went back to my hotel room that night

I woke up just to find
She'd took my keys and all my things
My brand new Chevy was nowhere in sight

I called the cops they GPS'd my car to Canyon Road
Now she's stuck in the slammer down somewhere Mexico

Yea that's just Karma
She'll weigh down on ya
Don't close your eyes too long
Cause she might just come and haunt ya
Yea One day she's so lovely and the next she flips a switch
It's true they say that Karma she's a
Beautiful lie to your face
Knife in your back
A bitter taste
She'll burn up all your clothes and every bridge
A cloud that just won't go away
Like Bad news on a sunny day
It's true they say that Karma she's a
Hey Hey Hey Hey

Don't start no Drama
Listen to your mama
Yea don't be flirting' with her man just cause you wanna
Don't bash nirvana
Or be a pre Madonna
Cause no matter where you go she's gonna find ya

Yea that's just Karma
She'll weigh down on ya
Don't close your eyes too long
Cause she might just come and haunt ya
Yea One day she's so lovely and the next she flips a switch
It's true they say that Karma she's a
Beautiful lie to your face
Knife in your back
A bitter taste
She'll burn up all your clothes and every bridge
A cloud that just won't go away
