

Die Alone

The Relapse Symphony

I have a wretched soul, destined to die alone
(die alone, die alone!)

The echoes of my past, they're haunting me
Like a ghost that won't move on and be free
I am a broken man, with bloodstains on my hands
I'm begging for a chance
A bit of forgiveness

I need a life line!
I have a wretched soul, destined to die alone
Spinning fast out of control
I will stay violent, nothing can stop it

Right now my heart's exposed, don't wanna die alone
Spinning fast out of control
I will stay violent, nothing can stop it

Just like a heart attack
My mind could be the one thing that actually kills me
The chemicals collide
I feel the rush inside
My veins aren't thinking when a bottle's your best friend

I need a life line!
I have a wretched soul, destined to die alone
Spinning fast out of control
I will stay violent, nothing can stop it

Right now my heart's exposed, don't wanna die alone
Spinning fast out of control
I will stay violent, nothing can stop it

I'm on a self destruction course
I'm burning down this pretty town
So tell me, can you take me at my worst
Because I'm never coming down!

I have a wretched soul, destined to die alone
Spinning fast out of control...yeah!

I have a wretched soul, destined to die alone
Spinning fast out of control
I will stay violent, nothing can stop it

Right now my hearts exposed, don't wanna die alone
Spinning fast out of control
I will stay violent, nothing can stop it

Don't wanna die alone, I don't wanna die alone! [x2]
