

Terror Generation

The Relapse Symphony

This is the sound of a revolution!
Let's go!

We're the terror generation
Raised by fear and censored news
This calls for infiltration
It's how we clear our views

We can't take what they won't give up
Fists up screaming out enoughts enough

How many more left dying in the streets
Before you realize it's a true enemy

Woah
Terror generation
Woah
Lies on every station
Woah terror generation
Were taking back the lives you stole
