

Get Back

The Rescues

Stars burn, a rush of light
Disappear into night
Rain falls down, meets with sky
Quietly they reunite
Oh my love, why do we fight?
Hold my black against your white
In the dark of our descent
We are not so different

Oh, mountains run back to the sea
Oh, I am not your enemy

We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back home

Banish me into the distance
Incomplete and silent sentence
I have all this love for you
No idea how to give it to you

Oh, I will wait a century
Oh, I am not your enemy

We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back home

A heart is like an iron gate
Traps me here, keeps me safe
Come the day I will be free
Meet you in infinity

We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back home

We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back
We're all just trying to get back home

Oh, time will tell eventually
Oh, I am not your enemy
