

Fading

The Reytons

I'm stumbling round
Looking for familiar faces and I know
That I let you down
I'm talking to myself 'cause I'm wasted and I know

That you will be there when I get home
That you will be there to let me know
That I messed it up again once more

'Cause I'm fading
'Cause I'm fading

I'm wandering round
Tryna find a place that is open and I know
That I've been a clown
I really should be back and I'm hoping when I go

That you will be there when I get home
That you will be there to let me know
That I fucked it up again once more

Cause I'm fading, tryna get to you but I'm fading
Cause I'm fading, tryna get to you but I'm fading
Cause I'm fading

I'm falling around
Spiralling the stairs out of focus and I know
That I'm out of bounds
I'm tryna find a way but it's hopeless

Cause I'm fading, tryna get to you but I'm fading
Cause I'm fading, tryna get to you but I'm fading

I'm stumbling round
Looking for familiar faces and I know
That I let you down
I'm talking to myself 'cause I'm wasted and I know
