

Ghost

The Reytons

If she's out on the drink tonight you'll spot her in a heartbeat
Looking like a keeper but she's never kept a clean sheet
All the lads around her like the champions of west street
Yeah her mates are fit, but she's a fuckin athlete

Iphone in her hand tonight the girls are on the town
Cautious with the selfies, instagrams are flying round
But poor old Mr Coco's getting taken for a clown
You can try all that you want mate but you'll never tie her down

So, don't stay round here if your looking for love
Cause that ones only here while the going is good N they said "Don't be wasting your time when the drinks in the system and th oughts in your mind. Do it"

Long gone
Be nice if you get her
She'll be
Long gone
Well there's no one better to be
Long gone
Best to forget her
One day your falling the next day your chasing a ghost

If he ant spent enough tonight he's at the cash machine
His all nights been a blur although he's dressed in pretty green
The bouncers in the toilets got him swearing that he's clean
While pictures of Elizabeth stay rolled up at the scene

And now he's tryna find her but I don't think he can Tonight he played a blinder, red right hand
And I told you from the start she isn't one for making plans
You can try all that you want mate what don't you understand

Look
Don't stay round here if your looking for love
Cause that ones only here while the going is good
They said "Don't be wasting your time with the drink in your system and thou ghts in your mind"

She'll be
Long gone
Be nice if you get her
She'll be
Long gone
N there's no one better to be
Long gone
Best to forget her

One day your falling the next day your chasing
And all you can find is rejection combined
With the egos of many all wasting their time

Don't be convicted to something your craving the most Don't become blind to the games of her mind
Though your actions are strong put your losses tonight
Cause one day your falling the next day your chasing a ghost

Don't stay round here if your looking for love
Cause that ones only here when the going is good They said "Don't be wasting your time one day your falling the next day your chasing a ghost"
