

Mind The Gap

The Reytons

Tie up your laces, cover your faces
The boys are about to attack
Stood in their places
Their dress codes are basic
Stone Island and Burberry caps

They tell 'em, "Mind the gap
Don't come around here"
It's only gonna end in tears
They tell 'em, "Mind the gap
Don't come around here"
It's all giving bad ideas
Get ready for it

Shots fired!
Don't lose your place
Stand in the trenches and cover your face when there's
Shots fired!
No time to wait, if they want war then we will
We will retaliate

Stood in the station, anticipation
The carriage arrives on the tracks
See all the faces impatiently waiting
300 and nobody's sat

They tell 'em, "Mind the gap
Don't come around here"
It's only gonna end in tears
They tell 'em, "Mind the gap
Don't come around here"
It's all giving bad ideas
Get ready for it

Shots fired!
Don't lose your place
Stand in the trenches and cover your face when there's
Shots fired!
No time to wait 'cause if they want war then we will
We will retaliate
We will retaliate

"The next train approaching platform one is at 20:21. Service to Sheffield.
Please, mind the gap."

Shots fired!
Don't lose your place
Stand in the trenches and cover your face when there's
Shots fired!
No time to wait 'cause if they want war then we will
We will retaliate
We will retaliate
