

One More Reason

The Reytons

Blue lights through the window
I knew this time would come
I've pushed my luck too far this time
There's nowhere left to run

And I know that you're worried
But your innocence is true
'Cause I've got some confessions
And the first one is, the first one is for you

'Cause I will try to make it right
Let me give you one more reason not to leave
I will never lie
So promise me that you will always be right there

Locked up waiting
I don't know what time I'm facing
I fucked up lately
But please tell me you'll still be waiting

'Cause I know you deserve much better
These four walls don't see much weather
I just need to know that you'll be there when I get out

'Cause I will try to make it right
Let me give you one more reason not to leave
I will never lie
So promise me that you will always be
Right there, right there
Right beside of me
Right there, right there
Right beside of me
Right there, right there
Right beside of me now

Contemplating
Picking up the phone once more, it's
So frustrating
'Cause you don't answer when I call

But I know you deserve much more
You're everything I'm living for
So please tell me you won't ignore me
When I walk outside

'Cause I will try to make it right
Let me give you one more reason not to leave
I will never lie
So promise me that you will always be
Right there, right there
Right beside of me
Right there, right there
Right beside of me
Right there, right there
Right beside of me now

We haven't spoken for so long

I don't know what's going on
All I know is that I let you down

I said that I was gonna try
With every letter that I write
I just hope that you come round
Please don't let me down

'Cause I will try to make it right
Let me give you one more reason not to leave
I will never lie
So promise me that you will always be
Right there, right there
Right beside of me
Right there, right there
Right beside of me
Right there, right there
Right beside of me now
