

Aphrodite

The Ridleys

You're the moon that glows in the sky
Lighting up the world when it's blue
Stars they dance, though late in the night
Don't you know they dance just for you?

There you are, above darkened clouds
Smiling at the world from afar
With the stars, you wander around
May they follow you wherever you are

Here I am, just another boy
Singing songs that others have sung
Tryna find the words to employ
To adore the goddess of love

Oh, woah, you've got me in a daze, yeah
No, woah, it's not another phase
You gave me one look and now I can't get my mind off of you
And it's all because

I see the galaxies when I look in your eyes
And I can't speak, no I can't speak at all
I swear to Zeus, you're Aphrodite in disguise
Don't think that you can hide it from me
Oh, no, I never thought I'd get this close to someone so divine
Oh, I can't breathe, no I can't breathe at all
Aphrodite, could you, could you please be mine? Oh
Could you please be mine, oh, mine?

Here you are, I've waited so long
Hoping you would sit down and stay
'Cause with the stars, I've been dancing along
Like a fool, so you'd look my way

You're the moon that glows in the sky
Lighting up my world when it's blue
Here I sing, though late in the night
Hope you know I sing just for you

Oh, woah, you've got me in a daze, yeah
No, woah, it's not another phase
You gave me one look and now I can't get my mind off of you
And it's all because

I see the galaxies when I look in your eyes
And I can't speak, no I can't speak at all
I swear to Zeus, you're Aphrodite in disguise
Don't think that you can hide it from me
Oh, no, I never thought I'd get this close to someone so divine
Oh, I can't breathe, no I can't breathe at all
Aphrodite, could you, could you please be mine? Oh
Could you please be mine, oh, mine?
Could you please be mine, oh, mine?
