

The sunlight has come to brush your cheek
But I'll ask him nice not to wake you
Lie a few minutes asleep in my arms
Two souls made one on endless sea
Flowing ethereal and earthly
The joy on your lips is so different today

No, I won't throw this away

'Cause ten years from now we'll look back at the photographs
Happy with the choice that we made
And I'll kiss you good morning
For every morning you stay

If life were a maze and we're both lost
Then why don't we get out together
If this is a puzzle then let's try to solve it
I know my mind's a tangled mess
That you want to untangle together
So cut all the metaphors and let's dance

No, I won't leave us to chance

'Cause ten years from now we'll look back at the photographs
Happy with the choice that we made
And I'll kiss you good morning
For every morning you stay

Don't you know what I would do
Oh, just to keep you beside me, I'd give you the moon
If I could

Ten years from now we'll look back at the photographs
Happy that we made it this far
Oh, I swear that we'll make it wherever we are

I know ten years from now
We'll be laughing and crying through
All of the memories we've made
And I'll kiss you good morning
For every morning you stayed
I hope you'd stay
Just stay
