

Lagoon

The Ridleys

Where the beast are running free
And the white clouds kiss the trees
There's a house that's mossy green
There you'll find me

After dawn the sunlight shone
Through the walls of cobblestone
On the earth that I call home
There you'll find me

Far from all the smoke and dust
Far from toxic rain and rust
Underneath the soil I trust
You will find me

Where the worms are filled with lust
Feel no sorrow or disgust
You will see I'm finally free
When you find me
