

Someday

The Ridleys

Someday I'll buy a pretty ring
To match the gold one on your nose
I hope you keep it 'til we're old
Someday I'll buy a family car
A seven-seater to fit nine
Two in the front, four, three behind

I wanna be the melting candle to your flame
Your closest friend, your fiercest love, one and the same
Some things will never ever change

Someday we'll rent a little room
Until we find a bigger space
Squeeze up in bed if that's the case
Someday we'll never say goodbye
Our phones will both be obsolete
By your side I feel complete

I wanna be your stack of books, your latest game
Your constant rock, your warmest hug, your fav'rite name
Some things will never ever change

I wanna be there when the sunlight hits your face
I wanna be there for you every single day
All that to say, all that to say

I wanna be the melting candle to your flame
Your closest friend, your fiercest love, one and the same
Some things will never ever change

I wanna be there when the sunlight hits your face
I wanna be there for you every single day
All that to say, all that to say
Someday my love will stay the same

Someday you'll dig up your old files
Just to listen to this song
I'll be right there to sing along
