

Strangest Love

The Ridleys

None of us ever saw it coming
That's how most tragedies go
If you're the last then I'll say one thing
You're the strangest lover I have ever known

You say the right things in all the wrong ways
You hold your tongue until you don't
And you can shut me out the whole day
While I scream into a screen and feel alone

If living without you
Will give me some peace then I won't even try to
Lie to myself
Fix all the mess

If living without you
Will give me some peace then I won't even try to
Lie to myself
Fix all the mess

You welcome strangers like your close friends
You love too much but don't let it show
And when we talk about it when the day ends
You've been scared to talk and show it even more

If living without you
Will give me some peace then I won't even try to
Lie to myself
Fix all the mess

If living without you
Will give me some peace then I won't even try to
Lie to myself
Fix all the mess

If living without you
Will give me some peace then I won't even try to
Lie to myself
Fix all the mess

If living without you
Will give me some peace then I won't even try to
Lie to myself
Fix all the mess

I take offense at all the small things
And make an issue when there's none
List all the promises I'm making
'Cause I'm bound to forget every single one

None of us ever saw it coming
But neither really wants to leave
Now when I stop to think about it
This love is not as strange as I believe
