

Armor of Light

Riot V

Look around us and you will see flaming arrows
Soaring through the air
Archers intent on inflicting their damage
No one will be spared

But there's a secret
The wise men know
Rise from your slumber
There's evil lurking down below

Free yourself
You won't fear the dark of night
When you ride
In the armor of light

Deep in the depths of all our yearning hearts
There's a fire to behold
Put on your helmet and take up your shield
Wrap yourself in a breastplate of gold

Men of violence
Men of greed
Men of hatred
Will fall in anguish at your knees

Free yourself
You won't fear the dark of night
When you ride
In the armor of light
