

Before This Time

Riot V

Burned not by the fire
Consumed by the cleansing flames of the forces that conspire
The low is to blows
Yet buried within the ashes seed inside still grows

Once blackened, now beckoned
A voice is calling
Atonement, through movement
From the grave crawling

Crushed, severed in two
All that was lost
Suddenly born anew
Hope, withered and dry
Brought back to life
Now there's a glow inside
Life, newly sublime
Don't ever look back
Before this time

Our mind filled with dread
The fear of former mistakes brings idleness instead
But the cycle can end
The strength of one move forward meets true life once again

Once blackened, now beckoned
A voice is calling
Atonement, through movement
From the grave crawling

Crushed, severed in two
All that was lost
Suddenly born anew
Hope, withered and dry
Brought back to life
Now there's a glow inside
Life, newly sublime
Don't ever look back
Before this time
Before this time

Once blackened, now beckoned
A voice is calling
Atonement, through movement
From the grave crawling

Crushed, severed in two
All that was lost
Suddenly born anew
Hope, withered and dry
Brought back to life
Now there's a glow inside
Life, newly sublime
