

Let It Show

The Riot

Let me know the feeling I have seen
Somewhere deep, deep inside a dream
Is it only in my mind, it's only you
Till the end I felt like I believe
Something real, something I have feared
Loving you is all I had, only you

Never thought I would be true
Never thought it could be real
Never nothing left for me
I feel like I should say
Let me know, don't you ever let me go
I'm losing you, you don't know how I feel
Let it show, don't you ever let it go
I'm holding on to something that is real
Don't you know it's killing me
I'm losing everything I see
Is this all you wanted for us baby, let it show
Don't you go, won't you even let me know
I'm holding on, can't you ever let it go
I'm losing you, there's nothing left for me
Tell me why, why there's nothing left to hide
I'm holding on, baby don't let go
I can see, yeah there's nothing left for me
I'll be holding on, won't you let it show
Let it show
