

Raining Fire

The Riot

Fighting forces forsaken to man
Bringing destruction is part of the plan
Raise your weapons, brute force is a must
Ride the thunder, engage the thrust

Break the silence, scorching the sky
Touch the heavens, the maiden she flies
Wind fanning flames as the engines combust
Leathered fighters, intentions unjust

Synchronized warfare
Riveted steel
Hypnotized puppet
Doing the deed for the thrill of the kill

Fight or you will
Die so you must
Fly into the
Raining fire

Stalk the rebel who's set in my sights
Locked and loaded and ready to strike
Driving the enemy back to their land
United in justice we stand

Chase the bandits, the scourge of mankind
Rage, fury and action combined
Heavy machines with hearts made of steel
Power and glory meet passion and will

Synchronized warfare
Riveted steel
Hypnotized puppet
Doing the deed for the thrill of the kill

Fight or you will
Die so you must
Fly into the
Raining fire

Disciplined fighters are leading the fleet
Sirens screeching, alerting the weak
Pillars of fire, a warning to heed
Face the battle, committed we bleed

Synchronized warfare
Riveted steel
Hypnotized puppet
Doing the deed for the thrill of the kill

Fight or you will
Die so you must
Fly into the
Raining fire
