

Instead I Chose

The Roches

I had that chance to fall in love
The life dance around myself
As if I am the shadow, nearly ended
But I never took the chance
Instead I chose to stay in a nutshell and be a nut

I had that chance to fall in love
The thing is, I didn't think it was worth it anymore
Responsibilities spoke louder, I guess
Instead, I chose to walk the other way and be here

I had that chance to leave this mess
But isn't it funny how I stayed put
Saddled up and harnessed caught horse
Instead I chose to call it love, this hard drive

I am riding into the sunset
Riding into the sunset
Riding into the sunset
