i love somebody named lovey please don't tell anybody lovey has no money
or hope of a job
yeah, take a look at the room that pearl is a slob why o why do I love lovey?
i hung a picture on the wall if you see what i saw then you'd know it all smiling like an angel
eyes honest and true
if you got introduced
well, you'd love lovey too my o my that lovey
someday
you might have to wander
away from me
if you go far
hop into a car
and come to visit
come to visit me
yes i do
and you don't have to tell me i'm lucky
some people are lonely

cryin' in the beer

but i got so much love

the aches and the pains and the moaning and the groaning disappear

(for a while)

time after time with lovey

someday

you might have to wander
away from me
if you go far
i wish upon a star
you come to visit

come to visit me
