

Will You Be My Friend?

The Roches

I met the most beautiful turtle today
Her head was hid in her shell
Those lovely eyes were peeking at me
Ooo she was scared I could tell
I'm a dime a dozen toad
Nothing super duper about me
I seem the same as everyone here
In the toad community
will you be my friend?
Will you be my friend?
Will you be my friend?
o toad, nobody talks to me here
I thank you, it's been a long time
I have been waiting on the sidelines
Wishing for someone so kind
will you be my friend?
Will you be my friend?
Will you be my friend?
at first we could not find a game
That the two of us knew
She got quiet I was shy
We did not know what to do yeah! then she just happened to smile
Smiling was ok for now
That's when I knew turtles and toads,
Toads and turtles
Could have fun somehow
will you be my friend?
Will you be my friend?
Will you be my friend?
