

Tara, I'm Terrible

The Rocket Summer

Reminisce, thinking about the days we don't miss
Hit the bottom when I fell, but oh well
And I could stay here stuck
Thinking about the days of bad luck
I'll get lost in your voice
It's an easy choice
And something in your smile says everything's gonna be alright

Wasn't always this easy
It wasn't always like it was today
Wasn't always this easy
And I will hold onto this moment
This memory so sweet

What are your dreams?
Tell me what they are and I'll believe
An angel without wings
To the sweetest things
To hear the songs we've sung
Listening to how far we've come
To secret stones we've sailed
But today prevailed

And something in your smile says everything's gonna be alright
It wasn't always this easy
It wasn't always like it was today
It wasn't always this easy
And I will hold onto this moment
This memory

And Tara, I'm terrible for telling the whole world
About how you're so terribly tolerant of my crazy antics
