

I Will Call You Home

The Rocketboys

I will climb up to the highest branches
Until I see all of your faces
And I will call you home
Oh I will call you home

I will travel into the wild
Through all kinds of violence
And all kinds of silence
And I will call you home
Oh I will call you home
Oh I will call you home
Oh I will call you home

I'll paddle out into the deepest ocean
And hope to find you
Find you waiting
And I will call you home
Oh I will call you home

I'll take my time
And I'll take my chances
I'm going to find you
As long as I'm still standing
And I will call you home
Oh I will call you home
