

If I go away would you follow me, love
Would you pack all your bags
Would you ask any questions I don't-
Have answers to
Come on, come on love, now, just follow my lead
I may take you in circles
And I may lead you astray
But I'll try not to

Oh, I will always be a stone
I will always be a stone
I will always be a stone
Throw away

All of these houses and all of these streets
They're all looking familiar
And, oh, I don't know what that means
And no I don't want to

Further and further and further away
I may lead you in circles
But I will not ever leave
No, I'll never leave you

Oh, I will always be a stone
I will always be a stone
I will always be a stone
Throw away

If I go away would you follow me, love
Would you pack all your bags
Would you ask any questions I don't-
Have answers to
If I go away would you follow me, love
Would you pack all your bags
Would you ask any questions I don't-
Have answers to

Oh, I will always be a stone
I will always be a stone
I will always be a stone
Throw away
