

You and Everyone Else

The Rocketboys

You and everyone else I know are coming with me.
I've got a lot of things to tell you about.
Oh you, you know all that I've been through now.
You've heard all the ups and you've heard all the downs.

Even though my eyes are closed,
I recognize your beautiful voices.

You taught me all the things that brought me here,
And I'm grateful for you lending me your ear.
Oh you, you're the reason that I write down my thoughts.
You're the reason and I'm sorry I forgot.

Even though my eyes are closed,
I recognize your beautiful voices.
Even though my eyes are closed,
I recognize your beautiful voices.

Even though my eyes are closed,
I recognize your beautiful voices.
