

Hoo Doo Blues

The Rolling Stones

Now, when your woman start actin' funny, and begin to run around

You better get you somebody, 'cause she's fittin' to put you down

Better let her go, man, just as quick as you can

Because that hoodoo girl is going to hoodoo the hoodoo man

You know my woman got me on a wonder at somethin' I can't understand'

How I look at her runnin' with some other man

After all I did, all in this world I can

But this little hoodoo girl, she done hoodoo the hoodoo man (Spoken) Well, blow your harmonica, son. Yes, she got me hoodoo

She take all my money and spend it all over town

And when I wants to love her, man, she ain't can be found'

Now I walk and cry, dryin' tears away with my hand'

Because that little hoodoo girl, people, she done hoodoo the hoodoo man
