Be My Everything

The Romantics

Tonight I'm out to getcha
And even though someone else is with you
Run away, I need your lovin' every day

Will you mind when I cut in?
Is it bold, too soon, too sudden?
I hesitate, I lose, you get away

Be my everything
Won't you dance into my dream?
Hear my heart sing
Be my everything

I'll take the first chance
You and I can start a new romance
And together lost, find each other true

Be my everything
Won't you dance into my dream?
Hear my heart sing
Be my everything
My everything

Step by step, 'round and 'round
It should be me you're holding now
And you set free would make this night
And every night complete

Imagine every heartbeat
To perfect time, when you're close to me
Anyway, just two can set the scene

Be my everything
Won't you dance into my dream?
Hear my heart sing
Be my everything

Be my everything
Won't you dance into my dream?
Hear my heart sing
Be my everything

Be my everything
Hear my heart sing
Be my everything
Hear my heart sing

Be my everything
(Won't you dance into my dream?)
Hear my heart sing
(Be my everything)

Be my everything
