

Tomboy

The Romantics

I get off when you get on me
But do ya always have to top me?
I love the lips
That I wanna kiss
But when you start to talk
Well, you always miss

You're a tomboy
It must get pretty tough
You're a tomboy
You can't hide it enough

I think that you're so attractive
Until you get your muscles active
Ch-ch-ch-changing roles is your, your obsession
When you gonna learn, learn your lesson?

You're a tomboy
It must get pretty tough
You're a tomboy
You can't hide it enough

[?] tells me I'm wasting time
But with lipstick and makeup
I'm gonna make you mine

On the outside, you look like
A classic cover girl
And underneath it all
A wild man of the world
Even though you try your best
You just can't hide it
It gets too much
It's, it's hard to fight it

You're a tomboy
It must get pretty tough
You're a tomboy
No, you can't hide it enough
You're a tomboy
It must get pretty tough
You're a tomboy
Oh, you can't hide it enough

You're a tomboy
You're a tomboy
Alright
