

Blues For Baby

The Ronettes

Baby, say you're never coming home
Hey, baby, say you're never coming home
Your mama's found another man
And you can bum it all alone

Ah, lover, I've known you more than twenty years
Oh, lover, I've known you more than twenty years
Oh, lover, and it's been twenty years of tears

Ah, play it [?]

Ah, I like it like that

Oh, baby, say you're never coming home again
Oh, baby, say you're never coming home again
Your mama's found another man
And you can bum it all alone, woah

Baby, baby, oh lover, lover
I've known you too long, baby
It's been like twenty years
And I don't want you no more, baby
And you can go on back to business

Ah, bye bye
Oh, bye bye
