Running From Myself

THE ROOP

Sometimes I feel ready
To show you, who I am
But it looks too scary
So I run, from myself

Wanna touch and wanna feel
But for me, it sounds unreal
Running from myself
I'm running from myself

It's a day of no return
And I'm letting dreams burn
Running from myself
Been running from myself
For so long, so long

Living in my madness
With thoughts of you, like a fool
Going back to sadness, is what I do
There's nothing new, ooh-oh-oh

Wanna touch and wanna feel
But for me, it sounds unreal
Running from myself
I'm running from myself

It's a day of no return
And I'm letting dreams burn
Running from myself
Been running from myself
For so long, so long

When I see a smile
Like a child, so beautiful
Straight into your arms, I would dive
Would never let you, never let you, never let you
Never let you go, oh, no, no

Wanna touch and wanna feel (don't wanna touch)
But for me, it sounds unreal
Running from myself (yeah)
I'm running from myself

It's a day of no return (oh, no)
And I'm letting dreams burn
Running from myself
Been running from myself
For so long, so long (so long)
