

Time

The Rose

If it's the last time
I'll hold your hand in mine
Look into your eyes
All our good times passing by
Remembering our highs
It's hard to say goodbye

When was the last time
We laughed until we cried
Might be the last time
I know we're near the end
Can't rewind it back to when
We wasted our days and nights just dreaming

This is the last time
Closing scene to your story
Thank you for your time
Cheers to a new opening
I'll miss you endlessly
Hope we meet again someday
Smiling like before
Time will heal us

Missing you missing you now
Missing missing you now
Missing you missing you now
We're missing you
Missing you missing you now
Missing missing you now
Missing you missing you now
We'll kiss you goodbye

Rushing to save time
But time waits for nobody alive
I can't turn back what's done
Can't change us
Wanna spend more time beside you

This is the last time
Closing scene to your story
Thank you for your time
Cheers to a new opening
I'll miss you endlessly
Hope we meet again someday
Smiling like before
Time will heal us

Oh know the healing won't be overnight
Countless nights crying over mights
Oh yeah know the healing will take time
Start dealing with it now oh

This is the first time
Closing scene to your story
Thank you for your time

I'll miss you endlessly
Smiling like before
Time will heal us

Missing you missing you now
We're missing you
