

Tomorrow

The Rose

One, two
One, two, three, four

Tomorrow, our sun will kiss the ground
Melting away these twisted lies
Leave nothing but ashes
Chasing gold while hearts are being sold
The greedy ones and the other ones
Without hesitation

Who said you could be
The one to be cruel
Now it's time to realize (Now it's time to realize)
That nothing's as it seems (Nothing's as it seems)
I'm sick of curiosity

Tomorrow we'll be okay
Don't worry too much
As long as we keep
Hoping for better (Hoping for better)
Love is the only way
Everybody knows
Now we just need
To dance to the music (To dance to the music)

Tomorrow is a better yesterday
Laughing out loud, jumping around
Forget all the mistakes
Paper walls
The castle starts to fall
Drifting away like paper planes
Let go of the heartaches

Who said you could be
The one to be cruel (Cruel)
Now it's time to realize (Now it's time to realize)
That nothing's as it seems (Nothing's as it seems)
I'm sick of curiosity

Tomorrow we'll be okay
Don't worry too much
As long as we keep
Hoping for better (Hoping for better)
Love is the only way
Everybody knows
Now we just need
To dance to the music (To dance to the music)
Tomorrow we'll be okay
Don't worry too much
As long as we keep
Hoping for better (Hoping for better)
Love is the only way
Everybody knows
Now we just need
To dance to the music (To dance to the music)
