

Worthwhile

The Rosebuds

If we could go on wishing all the time
Then we could've had a break when we were tired
And we would rest awhile, and I'd try to make you smile
Girl, I want to make it all worthwhile
The snow is falling on the sidewalks of Greenpoint
Blank white walls are sleeping with your voice
And I sent a box of our stuff, so there's something to open up
Girl, I want to make this all worthwhile
And I know you, and it all went by too soon
If we could go on wishing all our lives
I would go on wishing we did it right
And we could tell the truth about the fragile me and you
All I want is to make this all worthwhile
And I know you, and it all went by too soon
