

One moment without noise in our favorite place
One problem, I can't stay up if I know you're awake, ah

Here comes champagne, here comes you
Turning up the volume in a crowded room
Let this challenge but I hate you
Someone so connected should find something to do
Can't take you off my brain

Ooh-ooh, ah, ah-ah
Casper to my left, Casper to my right
Stay back, ah...

Say Satan, how's it feel to miss your payment again
A vacation, made a deal to get myself on the mend now

You broke bread with all my friends
Lay down on a table and play victim for them
It won't matter 'cause I won't dance
My body is the curtain as they notice the stench
By any other name

Ooh-ooh, ah, ah-ah
Casper to my left, Casper to my right
Stay back, ah...

Don't be afraid to leave, they will not notice
Future's bleak and tonight seems hopeless
Don't put on me, you're not in focus
Background is weak and I think I should tell ya

Casper
Ah, ah-ah
Satan, he just left, when's he coming back?
Never, ah, ah-ah

Ooh-ooh, ah, ah-ah
Casper to my left, Casper to my right
Stay back, ah...
