

Freakout

The Rubens

Freak out, I just need to know that You're gonna come around and pick up all of your shit
'Cause I can't look at it, reminds me of when we
We were so happy yeah, when we're so happy yeah

Lying, crying, say I didn't see it coming
But I told ya, every way but the words
Lines, wines, partying and never comin' home
Sayin' sorry in every way but the words

Kicked out, kick me while I'm down
Make me feel like I should, cause I'm feeling way too good
Tie the rope around my feet, just below the surfaces deep
Just to see me struggling, I wanna feel your suffering

Lying, crying, say I didn't see it coming
But I told ya, every way but the words
Lines, wines, partying and never comin' home
Sayin' sorry in every way but the words

But I told ya
Sayin' sorry
But I told ya
Sayin' sorry

Lying, crying, say I didn't see it coming
But I told ya in every way but the words
Lines, wines, partying and never comin' home
Sayin' sorry in every way but the words

But I told ya
Sayin' sorry
But I told ya
Sayin' sorry
