

I Know

The Rubens

Pity me, pitch shift on my screen
I cried for you, cried for you
Don't worry 'bout a thing, secrets safe with me
Ooh ooh yeah
Solid brick so high, so big
I'm impenetrable, impenetrable
There's no foundation outside me, I've found my missing link
I throw away my money 'cause you want my everything
I feel good, good

Eyes on shoulders, girl, what have you done?
I come over and you've partied with someone
There's some things that I know
There's an ache in my bones
It meant nothing, don't
It's my dignity you want

Magazine, make me believe
I would die for you, die for you
But it also told me things
Like who Swift is dating
And which of superheroes kinda similar to me
But now I can't go, I'm lost in my phone
And I scroll through, I scroll through
It's some sick twisted comedy, that everything I see
And everyone I meet brings out a brand new memory
Only you, you

Eyes on shoulders, girl, what have you done?
I come over and you've partied with someone
There's some things that I know
There's an ache in my bones
It meant nothing, don't
It's my dignity you want

No, say nothin' more
I know this film, seen it before
You're supposed to turn away and then you stop me at the door
And say that I did nothing wrong and it is not my fault
But if I did nothing wrong and it is not my fault
What future chance do I have of preventing this at all

Eyes on shoulders, girl, what have you done?
I come over and you've partied with someone
There's some things that I know
There's an ache in my bones
It meant nothing, don't
It's my dignity you want

Eyes on shoulders (shoulders)
I come over (over)
Theres some things that I know (I know)
It meant nothing, don't
It's my dignity you want
