The Rubettes

I can see you, I want a picture of you
Look over here, I want a picture of you
Now it can't be right when you're out of my sight
For another day, another night without you

Camera, camera won't you listen to me, oh wo
Camera, camera won't you listen to me, oh wo
Oh oh oh...

Photograph, I took a polaroid, photograph
Photograph, with my polaroid, photograph
Smile though your heart is aching
Smile even though it's breaking
For the photograph

The first time I saw you I couldn't believe my eyes
Now you're captured forever cause the camera never lies
And the beauty I see standing there before me
Reminding me of the moment you filled up my eyes

Camera, camera won't you listen to me, oh wo
Camera, camera won't you listen to me, oh wo
Oh oh oh...

Photograph, I took a polaroid, photograph
Photograph, with my polaroid, photograph
Smile though your heart is aching
Smile even though it's breaking
For the photograph

Now it can't be right when you're out of my sight
For another day, another night without you
Camera, camera won't you listen to me, oh wo
Camera, camera won't you listen to me, oh wo
Oh oh oh...
