

Sin And Sin Again

The Saddest Landscape

Remember when we first met under the fluorescent lights of the pharmacy. you spent your time searching for a way to make all of your fears come true. now you show me your body..all black and blue asking me for forgiveness but this is one that you will have to do on your own. nine times out of ten i was there for you. now i am left watching you fighting desperately for something that is already yours
