The Saints

Yes it can be very entertaining to be sold so lead me to the marketplace I put my trust in you & yes I know you're thinking very much of me now
& yes I know exactly what that means to me somehow
So I will watch my step
& then I will let go
So when the night time comes the daylight disappears
I drink a cup of mud to dissipate & even though it doesn't do much good to get it all in vain
I am left standing here with not much else to do
So I better watch my step
I think I better let go.....
