The Samples

She paints pictures of the sky
She hides feelings in her eyes
She dances behind shadows
You'll be there when she needs you
When she smiles at you
She smiles at me
When she smiles at you
She smiles at me
Foreign countries on a wall
Left over from a dream
All places I've never been
All places I've never seen
When she smiles at you
She smiles at me
When she smiles at you
She smiles at me
There's little left to understand
She waves goodbye with her
Two good hands
From feelings that won't go away
You'll need them all again one day
When she smiles at you
She smiles at me
When she smiles at you
She smiles at me ...
